

SELF-DECLARATION OF TEMPORARY NON-COMPLIANCE PURSUANT TO THE EUROPEAN ACCESSIBILITY ACT

(pursuant to Legislative Decree No. 82/2005 and subsequent amendments – Digital Administration Code)

Subject: website www.daldoss.com

Hereby, Daldoss Elevelectron S.p.a., in the person of its legal representative Mr. Andrea Daldoss, declares that the website mentioned above currently does not fully comply with the accessibility requirements set out by the WCAG 2.1 guidelines, level AA, as required by EU Directive 2019/882 (European Accessibility Act), transposed into Italian law with effect from June 28, 2025.

However, the company:

- formally undertakes to fully adapt the website to the accessibility requirements by no later than June 28, 2030, making use of the extension provided for products/services published before the deadline;
- has already allocated budget over the next three years for the website's upgrade to ensure compliance with current regulations;
- has initiated an internal process involving technical evaluation and legal consulting to define the most suitable compliance path;
- remains available to provide further information or updates on the progress of the work upon request by the competent authorities.

This declaration is made under the full responsibility of the company, aware of the consequences in the event of false declarations pursuant to Articles 46 and 47 of Presidential Decree 445/2000.

Our goal is to ensure an inclusive digital experience for all.

Thank you for your understanding during this transition phase.
